

Seminar series 2022/23

Rosanna Barraclough

*'The most chaste and correct specimen of its style in the kingdom':
Joseph Bonomi the Elder (1739 – 1808) and Rosneath House'*

Fri 16 December @ 19:30 UK time

The Friends of the Argyll Papers are delighted to announce the next in our 2022/3 series of online seminars informed by research undertaken in the archive. This seminar will take place on Zoom.

Rosanna's presentation on 'The most chaste and correct specimen of its style in the kingdom': Joseph Bonomi the Elder (1739 – 1808) and Rosneath House' is based on her research for her degree and additional information that she has gained during her internship with the Argyll Papers, during which she consulted the correspondence, accounts and extensive collection of Bonomi's plans for Rosneath House held in the archives.

Seminars are free for members of the Friends. Non-members are welcome to attend and are invited to make a donation of £5 per seminar. Book your place and receive joining instructions by emailing: friendsoftheargyllpapers@gmail.com
