Dear Friends,

January 2023

After so many years of not meeting up we are delighted to be able to invite representatives of the heritage sector to 'Connecting Conversations'.

It will be a day for us to influence, input, and decide on how we pull together to strengthen our voices and showcase the heritage treasures here in Argyll and Bute. With the funding challenges facing us all it is even more important to support each other and make those connections. Let's get the year started with a positive, by sharing our knowledge and beginning the conversations that will assist us all.

'Connecting Conversations: Heritage – Tangible and Intangible.'

When: Thursday 23rd February

Time: 10am – 3.30pm

Venue: The Rockfield Centre, Oban

FREE EVENT - BOOK TODAY: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/477516303117>

During the day we will build a picture of: 'What is Heritage – Tangible and Intangible in Argyll and Bute?' This will begin the process of our understanding of the breadth of heritage across Argyll and Bute.

To help get the conversations going we have two inspiring speakers to give us examples of successful projects in Argyll that have utilised their heritage resources to connect and widen their reach.

In addition, the Forum will update the conversations with other forums across Scotland to enable our voices to be heard.

Thanks to grant funding from Museum Galleries Scotland and The National Lottery Heritage Fund we are also able to offer small bursaries for those who need financial support to be able to attend. Full programme details are on our booking form.

Learning from our day will be shared with other heritage forums across Scotland. As part of the day our five-minute mayhem enables 5 organisations/individuals to tell their story Book your slot here: abmhforum@gmail.com

We look forward to meeting you all next month.

The Trustees, ABMHF
