Rab Houston Who are the Scots like?

Saturday 26 November, 6pm, Carnegie Library

Professor of Modern History at the University of St Andrews, Rab Houston explores how an independent Scottish nation emerged in the Middle Ages, how it was irrevocably altered by Reformation, links with England and economic change, and how Scotland influenced the development of the modern world.

Scotland: A Very Short Introduction is a concise, lively, and at times opinionated account of Scottish history, politics, society, religion, and culture - both past and present.
