Report of the Trustees

Governing Document

Scottish Local History Forum is a charitable unincorporated association and its purpose and administration arrangements are set out in the constitution. The constitution was adopted on 3rd September 1994 and last amended on 25th October 2012. The Forum is managed by a committee of Trustees who are appointed at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Forum.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Scottish Local History Forum is a registered charity in Scotland. Trustees seeking re-election are elected at the AGM which shall be held no earlier than 1 August and no later than 30 November each year. Members shall elect a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 12 trustees to serve for the next year. They will retire at the next AGM but may stand for re-election.

Management

The Trustees are responsible for the strategic direction and governance of the Forum. The Trustees Committee met six times in the year to 31st July 2014.

An Advisory Committee was created on 19th November, 2012 to facilitate consultation with organisational members of the Forum. It includes representatives of member organisations and meets approximately every six months and currently has 4 members (other than the Trustees). Further members are being sought.

The current active sub-committees are:

- Publications Board (responsible for editing the journal).

Charitable Purposes

The aims of The Forum are to advance the heritage of Scotland and education in Scottish local history, without distinction of political, religious or other opinions, by associating historical societies, local authorities, voluntary organisations, educational institutions and individuals in a common effort to pursue this object by the stimulation of public interest and encouragement of high standards in education through the medium of meetings, publications, exhibitions and conferences.

Activities and Achievements

The results for the year are set out in the attached accounts. Three issues of the journal and two conferences were produced during the year. Outlets for sales of the Journal (to improve visibility and increase membership) were achieved during the year and the Forum met its target in finding advertisers for the Journal. Membership numbers slightly increased during the year.

Trustee Remuneration and Expense

The trustees did not receive any remuneration during the year and expenses only to cover those incurred as a direct result of Forum business.

Financial Review

The results for the period are set out in the attached accounts which show a surplus of £3,903 (2012 –£931).

Reserves Policy

The Forum’s current policy on reserves is to have funds equivalent to the costs of producing 2 copies of the journal and holding the AGM.
Plans for the Future

- Publications
  - 3 issues of Scottish Local History: Winter 2013, Spring 2014 and Summer 2014.

- Events
  - 1 conference and AGM in October 2013 in Glasgow “Trades and Crafts in Scotland - Medieval to Modern”.
  - Workshop in collaboration with partner in Spring 2014.

- Website
  - Complete professional redevelopment to include expanded functionality and improved userability

- Expanding the membership
  - Build up a list of organisations to approach directly to become members (local societies, museums and academic institutions)

- Creation of post of Honorary President (not a Trustee) and appointment of first holder

- Increase number of Trustees and AC members.

Independent Examiner’s Report to the trustees of Scottish Local History Forum

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2013 which are set out on pages 5 and 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity’s trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner’s statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner’s statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
   - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
