Radical Women and the Struggle for Equality

Local History Symposium

with music & contributions by Lenzie Academy pupils

Wednesday 19th Nov 2014 / 12.45pm to 5.00pm

Lenzie Academy, Myrtle Avenue, Lenzie G66 4HR

Principal speakers include: Elspeth King on the ‘Suffragettes’, Katie Hunter of the Scottish Women’s History Group on ‘Four Quaker Women’ (who promoted women's rights during the nineteenth century) and actress Janette Foggo (National Theatre of Scotland, 7:84, etc) on ‘The Search for Dramatic Heroines’

There will be a welcome by Provost Una Walker of East Dunbartonshire

Chair: Professor Gerard Carruthers, University of Glasgow

For full event details, booking and ticket info visit the Bishopbriggs Library or check out our website at www.thomasmuir.co.uk

Thomas Muir - The Father of Scottish Democracy

In association with